Vision 2030: Why Solar Matters Now

A nation that built its fortune on crude oil exports now pouring $20.8 billion into photovoltaic wafer production. Saudi Arabia's solar push isn't just about clean energy - it's an existential reboot. With 40% of GDP tied to hydrocarbons, the kingdom's renewable transition could make or break its economic future.

The Oil Paradox

Here's the kicker: Saudi gets 9.5 hours of daily sunshine yet historically generated
